Miscellaneous.

HON. D. G. CAMPBELL, of Merriam, was run over and killed by a suburban train on the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis road the other day, while walking on the track near Merriam Park. He had been a prominent citizen of Johnson County for thirty-five years. About twelve years ago he was a member of the Legislature and this fall was a candidate for Congress before the State convention of the Alliance. He was about sixty years old and leaves a large family.

The next session of the Social Science Club of Kansas and Missouri will be held at Kansas City, Kan.

It is stated that Judge Peffer is the candidate of the National officers of the Alliance for the Kansas Senatorship, and that the influence of the National organization will be thrown for him without delay.

PENSIONS granted Kansas veterans on the 11th: Charles McCarty, of Troy; Milton Woods, of Beaman; Elias B. Peters, of Garden City; Edward A. Gould, of Eskridge; Jay S. Judd, of Irving; Madison Smelt, of Topeka; Asa Hockett, of Independence; William Anderson, of Belpre; Oren D. Haskell, of Clay Center; William Hobbs, of Parker; Winfield S. Creighton, of Glen Elder; Abram Putnam, of Dillon; Frederick Ford, of the National Military Home; David H. Bruce of Parker; James K. Carr, of Goff; Joseph A. Hendrix, of Love; James P. Jordan, of Arkansas City; Arnold Hottinger, of Edna; Hugh M. Jackson, of Washington; Elias S. Mobley, of Hill City; William K. Thomas, of Ellis; Charles Bradshaw, of Durham Park; Buell A. Small, of North Branch; Alexander Boleaux, of Kanopolis; Jacob M. Hancock, of McPherson; Jared M. Fancher, of Coyville; John Givens, of Independence; Gilbert L. Thompson, of Liberty; Jacob Carl, of Larned; Joseph C. Baird, of Dodge City; the minor child of Wiley Paris, of Talmage, and of Peter Demoss, of Larned; Lucinda Gould, of Eskridge; Matilda J. Mann, of Central City, and Louisa McLaughlin, of Topeka.

A TOPEKA dispatch of the 11th says: "There remains but four counties yet to be heard from, Garfield, Haskell, Logan and Stanton. The total vote in the election, without those counties, is as follows: Humphrey, 113,750; Willits, 106,091; Robinson, 69,038—total 289,880; Humphrey's plurality, 7,149."

WHAT CURES?

Editorial Difference of Opinion on an Important Subject.

What is the force that cures disease; and which is the most convenient apparatus for applying it? How far is the regular physician useful to us because we believe in him, and how far are his pills and powders and tonics only the material representatives of his personal influence on our health?

The regular doctors cure; the homoeopathic doctors cure; the Hahnemannites cure; and so do the faith cures and the mind cures, and the so-called Christian scientists, and the four-dollar-and-a-half advertising itinerants, and the patent medicine men. They all hit, and they all miss, and the great difference—one great difference—in the result is that when the regular doctors lose a patient no one grumbles, and when the irregular doctors lose one the community stands on end and howls.—Rochester Union and Advertiser.

Nature cures, but nature can be aided, hindered or defeated in the curative process. And the Commercial contention is that it is the part of rational beings to seek and trust the advice of men of good character who have studied the human system and learned, as far as modern science lights the way, how far they can aid nature and how they can best avoid obstructing her.—Buffalo Commercial.

It is not our purpose to consider the evils that result from employing the unscrupulous, the ignorant, charlatans and quacks to prescribe for the maladies that afflict the human family. We simply declare that the physician who knows something is better than the physician who knows nothing, or very little indeed about the structure and the conditions of the human system. Of course "he does not know it all."—Rochester Morning Herald.

I have used Warner's Safe Cure and but for its timely use would have been, I verily believe, in my grave from what the doctors termed Bright's Disease.—D. F. Shriner, senior Editor Scioto Gazette, Chillicothe, Ohio, in a letter dated June 30, 1890.

THE young beau's motto: Consider the Ladies, of course, but keep your eye on the Mabels and the Gertrudes, too.—Somerville Journal.

Weak Men and Weak Women.

Men and women both suffer from weakness and loss of strength. Women, however, suffer more than men. Men don't have those bearing down pains, the bane of a weak woman's existence. Both, however, have their dizzy spells, both bemoan their loss of appetite, their lack of energy, that feeling of weariness and constant fatigue. Both become languid, insipid, and life to either hardly seems worth living. Their kidneys are weak and seem wasting away. Their livers are inactive, their stomachs disordered, their bowels irregular. Oh! foolish, foolish men and women! why will you not seek the way to health and strength. Others as miserable as yourselves are now in the full enjoyment of happy, joyous life, simply because they put prejudices aside and began a use of that excellent alternative known as Dr. John Bull's Sarsaparilla. Ask your neighbors who have used it what they think about it. Ask your druggist for a bottle, and don't take any other.

We may differ in this world, but when we get to the cemetery we are all on a dead level.—Indianapolis Journal.

FOUR poisons that accumulate in the blood and rot the machinery of the system, are eradicated and expelled by using Prickly Ash Bitters, a medicine that will not irritate the stomach or bowels. It acts in a gentle manner on these delicate organs, and restores health in every case.

THE fish that has felt a hook knows the danger of taking snap judgment.—N. O. Picayune.

HAVE no equal as a prompt and positive cure for sick headache, biliousness, constipation, pain in the side, and all liver troubles. Carter's Little Liver Pills. Try them.

THE decline of literature.—The printed blank that accompanies rejected manuscript.—St. Joseph News.

BEST, easiest to use and cheapest. Piso's Remedy for Catarrh. By druggists. 25c.

EPPS'S COCOA
BREAKFAST.
"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has prepared our breakfast Cocoa, which is a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure food and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

HOW TO SUCCEED IN LIFE 100 LESSONS IN BUSINESS HOW TO MAKE MONEY

PRICE THREE BOOKS $1.00
1. 100 Lessons in Business.
2. Short Cuts in Figures.
3. How to Write a Good Business Letter.

100 LESSONS IN BUSINESS
PRICE, $1.00
A stepping-stone to success for thousands of young men.

Nothing else would induce government officials, business men by the dozens, heads of banks, prominent manufacturers, clerks by thousands, to send for this splendid work at the rate of over 100 a day.

SHORT CUTS IN FIGURES. This is the title of 22 pages of new matter added to the book recently. It explains a new multiplication rule which is turning the arithmetic of the country upside down, or rather, right side up. Of course, this rule does not apply to all numbers, but it applies to an immense number, and by ten minutes' study of the explanation, as given in the book, you will be able to tell at a glance which will work and which will not. More short cuts than you will find in any other book. Some of the best were secured from Germany and are entirely new in this country.

CORRESPONDENCE "HOW TO WRITE A GOOD BUSINESS LETTER" is the title of another 22-page section which is bound in with the edition of ONE HUNDRED LESSONS IN BUSINESS. It was first published as a separate book and 30,000 copies were sold, illustrated throughout. The chapters on envelope addresses, styles of penmanship, and U. S. postage are particularly attractive.

A STAMPEDE.

Corraling a drove of horses gives you plenty of work for hours. You don't have time to think what the weather is. You let everything slide, till the work is over. But the cowboy is never unprepared. When this "picnic" happens, whatever the weather, he is not drenched and wet to the skin before it's over, because he is always provided with a "Fish Brand Pommel Slicker." With one of these saddle coats on, you can't get wet if you try. Your entire saddle will be inside the coat, and it will be dry, too. Did you ever try the Pommel Slicker? Just try one, they cost very little. Then no more colds, fevers, rheumatism, and other results to exposure of weather. Every garment stamped with "Fish Brand Trade Mark." Don't accept any inferior coat when you can have the "Fish Brand Slicker" delivered without extra cost. Particulars and illustrated catalogue free.

A. J. TOWER, Boston, Mass.
